The Baron's Column

Baron Harold Devin of Waltham

Every so often I run across things that amuse me, make me think or just make me consider where things might be in a different light. I found this about 12 years ago and still refer to it regularly. It was written by Tristan Clair de Lune and this month I share it with you all. It seems timely.

Everything I Really Needed to Know, I Learned in the SCA

- Treat everyone with respect.
 - No one is beyond redemption.
 - Speak softly but carry a big stick.
 - Respect other people's things, be they physical objects or beliefs.
 - People have natural aggression, which can be expressed in a constructive manner
 - It is OK to have sex.
 - Play safely (especially in respect to the previous two).
 - People's insides don't always match their outsides – someone can be beautiful and shallow, or ugly and have a heart of gold.
 - Grown-ups need to play, too.
 - Be sincere.
- It's not whether you win or lose, it's how hard you try.
 - All you really need are a few good friends.
 - Having 10,000 friends doesn't hurt, either.
 - Help and care about everyone, especially your friends.
 - Just because someone is weird or from somewhere else or does something differently from you doesn't mean it's bad or wrong.
 - Respect authority, but know when to question it.
 - It's good to learn new things.
 - You're not really better than everyone else, even if you think you are.
 - Books are your friends.
 - Don't drink too much mead.
 - Work is easier when everyone helps.
 - Make sure everything you say is true.
 - Storytelling is a beautiful and too-little-practiced art form.
 - There is life without TV and video games.
 - Funny clothing doesn't look weird if everyone's wearing it.
 - Tights can show off your butt real well

Council Meeting Highlights

April 25, 2007

- Officer positions that are open: Arts & Sciences, Waterbearer, Demo Coordinator, and Sherrif . Interested parties please contact either the Seneshal or the Baron.
 - It's possible we lost money on the Principality Coronet event as attendance wasn't as high as expected. There was also some confusion over what expenses should be covered by the Barony and the Principality. Currently being worked on to figure it out.
 - Things are shaping up nicely for May Bardic/Defenders. Going to be an action-packed event. The possibility of a war practice to be held the next day is still up in the air.
- A Grand Ithra date is proposed for sometime in March. Specific date not chosen yet.
 - Much discussion surrounding Clinton War. The event is going ahead, likely with HE Amanda as Autocrat. Roughly the same format as held in previous years. It was recognized that while changes need to happen with how the event is run, they will happen gradually over time.
 - Relay for Life – still need participants to come forward. Additional fundraising to collect coins will be put in place to go towards to the total for the Relay.

For all the details on what was discussed at Council, visit the Baronial website for a complete copy of the meeting minutes.

Bardic Competition Information

Greetings unto the lists from HL Rodrigo de Cordova, Bardic Defender of Lions Gate.

On May 12 we will gather as a Barony to choose four of our Baronial Defenders, in the fields of heavy combat, archery, arts and sciences and bardic. It is of the Bardic competition that I speak today, and inform you of this year's categories of competition. Those competing for the title of Bardic Defender must enter in at least two categories with contrasting pieces.

The categories are:

Individual musical performance (vocal or instrumental): Can be a period composition, or an original composition done in a period style.

Group musical performance (vocal or instrumental): Can be a period composition, or an original composition done in a period style.

Broken consort - Combination of instrumental and vocal in one piece: Can be a period composition, or an original composition done in a period style.

Dramatic performance - Monologues or scenes from period plays: Includes performances of period poems.

Poetry - original poetry written in a period verse form: Sonnets? Triolets? Haiku? Bring them all down.

Brave New Bard: This category is for competitors who have been performing for less than a year, and who have never won a bardic competition.

Documentation of the piece, or of the style if it is original, is required and will be included in the judging. Documentation is not required for the Brave New Bard category but it certainly won't hurt.

If you want to perform but don't wish to compete, there will be opportunities to entertain the audience while the judges confer. There are also plans for a bardic circle in the evening after court.

The Baron and Baroness would like all competitors in the defenders tourneys to know that as a part of this rank, the victors this day will be expected over the next year to:

- When present, to join us at Our Courts
- Represent the Barony when travelling to other branches.
- Attend the three major local events, being Banquet, Baronesses and May Bardic.
- Compete in the name of Lions Gate over the next year.
- Swear fealty or an oath of service to the Barony.

Those competitors holding champion/defender titles from other branches or planning on competing in any for the next year should speak with the Baron or Baroness

As a final point, if any merchants wish to donate a prize, or if anyone has further questions please contact me at dangerd3an@gmail.com

Thank you,

HL Rodrigo de Cordova
Sergeant to HE Baroness Aurora Argentius
Bardic Defender of Lions Gate

Sealion War

June 8-10, 2007

Their Excellencies welcome you to the Barony of Seagirt.

War drums sound across the waters as the annual foes Seagirt and Lions Gate come together for Sealion War held in the Barony of Seagirt (Victoria, BC Canada) dated June 8th-10th, 2007.

Site opens at 2 on Friday and closes at 4 on Sunday. No dogs allowed (this a site rule) and site is VERY discreetly damp. Period containers only. Restating the importance of the discretely wet site. This is an active boy's scout camp with the camp steward on site, therefore, we ask all gentles for their understanding in this matter. All empties must be taken with you, however we are making possible arrangements to accept these on site, but please be prepared to take them with you if you cannot. There is a dumpster on the site for garbage only.

Merchants are welcome

Site Fees:

Scenarios for Sealion War

Armoured Combat - WARM-UP Battle

The warm-up battle will be an early-period vs. late-period war scenario. All personas pre-1000 will compete vs. all later-period personas.

ARTS Point

10 foot rule point. Each Barony will provide 3 heavies, 3 rapier fighters and 3 target archers who can pass the 10-foot period rule. Each competitor starts with 10 points and removes 1 point for every period violation agreed on by the three judges.

The judges may not lift or reveal anything not already visible. Competitors will have to process past the judges and be able to proceed immediately to their chosen venue to compete..

All 9 competitors must be war-point capable in the remaining war points. (In other words the heavies have to pass heavy inspection, rapiers etc)

SCIENCES Point

Coin operated siege equipment. Using their imagination competitors must present an SCA combat-legal siege engine that will be initiated by coins. Bonus marks for creativity and ingenuity. Documentation and authenticity will be considered.

Armoured Combat Open Field (3x) 1 POINT (best of three)

Combat Archery will be allowed in the first and third battles to allow adequate time to glean and inspect missile weapons. Armies will switch sides before the third battle begins.

The Open Field Battle will be a last fighter standing battle. Combat archery is allowed in the first and third battles. Thrown weapons may be used with legal hand protection in all battles. Victory will be determined by the side that has fighters still alive.

Armoured Combat - The Shogun Scenario (1x) 1 POINT

Combat Archery will be allowed. Thrown weapons may be used with legal hand protection in all battles. The Shogun Battle will be a last fighter standing battle. No shields are allowed and weapons restricted to 6' maximum length.

Armoured Combat - Ravine Battle (1x) 1 POINT

Combat Archery will be allowed. Thrown weapons may be used with legal hand protection in all battles. The Ravine Battle will be fought between two established lines. Archers will only be allowed to shoot straight down the ravine over or past their own troops and may not fire from positions outside of the ravine. The battle is considered over once one side makes it completely out of the other end of the ravine.

Armoured Combat - Bridge Battle (2x) 1 POINTS

There will be no archery in the bridge battles. Armies will switch sides after the first battle. Thrown weapons may be used with legal hand protection in all battles. This is a standard bridge battle fought till last man standing. Knights and Royal Peers may ford the river at any place along the river bank that they choose.

If any fighter falls, takes a knee, puts a hand down into the river, or is legged while crossing the river that fighter is considered to have drowned and is dead.

Rapier Combat - WARM-UP Battle

The warm-up battle will be a colour coordinated battle. Left of the colour spectrum vs right of the colour spectrum war scenario.

Rapier (Hopefully Woods) Battle (1x) 1 POINT

This will be a timed, unlimited resurrection battle lasting 40-55 minutes. The woods boundaries, starting points and resurrection points for each side will be announced. All holds will be local and the clock will not stop during holds. The objective of this battle will be to control three "flagpoles" located at fixed points within the woods. These locations will be known to each side prior to the start of the battle, and flagpoles may not be moved. A flagpole is controlled by the side whose banner is displayed on that pole, and control remains with that side until the pole is captured by an opposing side AND a new banner displayed. Until a new banner is "run up the flagpole" control has not changed. Control of each of these three flagpoles will be checked twice during the course of the battle, at random times unique to each flagpole. These times will be unknown to the combatants. Control will again be checked at the end of the battle, which will be at a randomly selected time ranging from 40 to 55 minutes after the start. The ending time will not be known to the combatants. Control of a flagpole (either during a random check or at the end of the battle) will result in one victory point being awarded to the side holding the pole. The War Point will be awarded to the side accumulating five or more victory points. Natural obstacles (i.e. brush, fallen timber, etc.) may not be rearranged into a defensive position. The movement of obstacles is only permitted in order to lessen potential safety hazards and should be done under the supervision of a marshal. Fighting may not occur within 100 feet of each of the resurrection points; these resurrection zones will be clearly demarcated. Once a fencer is "killed", he or she must return to his or her own resurrection point in order to resurrect. Resurrections shall be instantaneous, and fencers may return to the battle once they reach resurrection point.

Rapier Open Field (3x) 1 POINT Armies will switch sides before the third battle begins.

The Open Field Battle will be a last fighter standing battle. Victory will be determined by the side that has fighters still alive.

Rapier Bridge Battle (2x) 1 POINTS

There will be no archery in the bridge battles. Armies will switch sides after the first battle. This is a standard bridge battle fought till last man standing. White Scarves and Royal Peers may ford the river at any place along the river bank that they choose. If a fighter falls, takes a knee, puts a hand down into the river, or is legged while crossing the river that fighter is considered to have drowned and is dead.

Target Archery 3 POINTS

- 1 point awarded for highest score in Royal Rounds shoot,

- 1 point awarded for winner in Lions Gate Specialty shoot,
- 1 point awarded for winner in Seagirt specialty shoot

The victory is determined by total war points achieved.

- 1 for Arts
 - 1 for Science
 - 4 for Armoured Combat
 - 3 for Rapier
 - 3 for Target Archery
- Total possible of 12 points
