the baron's column

Baron Griffin ap Bedwyr

To start with this month I would like to send congratulations to those who tried out for the Sergentry at the SYGC event. It is a difficult and emotional task and these candidates performed well under pressure. To those who made it, Bernadette Eibhlan Ard, Harleigh Dhai, and Ceara, well done. And to Laric, you also have done well, take what you have learned and keep working, we hope to see you again next year.

A few people have uncovered information recently that puts some medieval perspective on the ranks of the Sergentry. Many look at it as an SCAism created to fill some void or need, in actuality much of what is done is based on real medieval practice or information. Caitrin and I have tried to add more of our flavor to the testing, particularly when it comes to persona development in the hopes of nudging people to be more period and authentic in their thinking. It was nice to see this year, as well as last, the bardic presentations reflect this.

Now I have a bone to pick with my people. At this year's Warren War the forces of Lions Gate were sorely outnumbered. Now I realize that we were up against Sport of Kings but there were still many who did not go there that were also not at Warren War. We only barely missed being saddled with Point Roberts again for another year, now if we had better representation we could have done much better. This is an event I would like people to plan for next year and we can really put on a good showing.

In 1339 Edward III of England declared war on France, beginning what would become known as the Hundred Years war. This war was the backdrop to some of the most famous medieval battles in history, Poitiers, Crecy, and of course Agincourt and it saw the long bow reach the pinnacle of its success as a weapon of war.

the baron's column - august

You have probably noticed lately that our Kingdom is a very busy place. There are a great number of events happening and only so many weekends to have them. We have shire events, Baronial events, Principality and Kingdom events. There are events coming up that I for one would like to go to, but due to a number of changes that have occurred this year some of these conflict with traditional Lions Gate events. Some of the major changes have come from the rescheduling of Tir Righ's major events which has thrown a bit of a monkey wrench into the works, though I am assured that it won't happen again so next year won't be so bad. We do not want to have to move any of our traditional events and will try to avoid that if we can but sometimes circumstances work against us. Another circumstance that has worked against us from time to time is getting sites, particularly indoor sites for events such as Baroness's Birthday and Baronial Banquet. Sites for these events are hard to come by and are increasingly more expensive to rent. We would like to work towards having a database of suitable sites so that when we need to find one we know where to go. So if you know of any places let us or the Seneschal know. The more eyes out there the better. Another area where we need more eyes is for awards. We cannot be everywhere or see everything but we don't want to overlook deserving individuals. So if you know of someone who you feel deserves recognition let us know. There may be some way we can recognize their efforts either within the Barony or at a Principality or Kingdom level.

I would like to send a thank you note out to all those who have given the Baroness and I support over the last little while. We have had to make some very hard decisions but those difficulties are made easier by the kind words and positive thoughts that have come from all of you. Thank you all very much.

For all you Mongols out there, on the 18th of August 1227 Genghis Khan died. The cause of death is a mystery, perhaps because of Genghis's order to shroud his passing with secrecy. So seriously do the heirs take this command that they kill almost anyone who sees the funeral procession. The great conqueror's grave is not marked—to discourage grave robbers—and no one has found it yet. Rising from obscure origins, Genghis (also Chingis) Khan united the tribes of Mongolia under one rule, then began a series of conquests that took his armies to China in the east and to the Adriatic in the west. He built an impressive empire that his grandson Kublai took to even greater heights, but he is most well known as a ruthless destroyer.

I am happy to report, by the grace of Their Majesties, we have a new member of the Order of the Grey Goose Shaft.

Morweena was inducted into the Order at Tir Righ Investiture this past Saturday. Megan Althea, Thomas of Appledore, James Wolfden, and myself were there to welcome her. Her white brace was made by her Goose - Master John MacAndrew, unable to attend due to a family emergency.

Master John has given us much coaching and inspiration over the years. Now all his goslings have flown the nest. He is to be congratulated on being a good mother.

PRINCIPALITY RAPIER MARSHAL POSITION OPENING

Greetings unto the populous of Tir Righ! I am in search of a replacement Principality Rapier Marshal as I must step down. Here is an opportunity to do some service for this great Principality! Applicants should be familiar with the new ruleset and have been a senior marshal for at least 2 years, have good mediation skills, and good communication skills.

Responsibilities include quarterly reports, Marshalling Principality events, and mediating disputes. Warmongering can also be an asset. Applications should include why you would be a good choice and any information you think we should know. Full SCA resume is not required!

Please send any applications by Sept 21st to rapier@tirrigh.org, marshal@tirrigh.org, rapier@antir.org and prince@tirrigh.org princess@tirrigh.org.

The Order of the Grey Goose Shaft (OGGS) was created in the West Kingdom as a reward to those who had contributed greatly to the target and combat archery communities. Although the West Kingdom dropped the award in favor of the Royal Company of Archers, in the Principality, and later the Kingdom of An Tir, the OGGS flourished, rising from a non-armigerous award to its current Grant-level status. Members of the OGGS wear a medallion of a goose surrounded by four arrows as in a mascle. By tradition, members of the OGGS are permitted to use the title Archos (pronounced ar-kos) before their name and wear the white bracer as a symbol of the Order.

Members look for well-rounded individuals who display target skills, marshallate knowledge, war and tournament combat experience, arts and sciences abilities, teaching, leadership, and the chivalric ideals and graces of the SCA.

Members of the OGGS are permitted to take students who are known singularly as an Arcuarius (Latin for archer; pronounced ar-koo-ar-EE-oos) or plurally as Arcuarii (pronounced ar-koo-AR-ee). Arcuarii are the only people in An Tir permitted, by custom, to wear red bracers. Traditionally the major charge of the OGGS member is emblazoned on their Arcuarius' red bracer.

NOTE FROM THE CHRONICLER

TO ALL AUTOCRATS

So that all events are included in the North Wind and the website, please ensure event copy is sent to the chronicler and copied to the Webminister BEFORE the last date of submission for the North Wind which is the Wednesday before Council meeting. The sooner we get your copy, the sooner we can begin to advertise it for you!

TO EVERYONE

If anyone takes pictures of an event and could share them to be used in the Northwind or would like to write something about the event, please let me know. It's always so much more interesting if pictures can be included of our members enjoying themselves and receiving honours at our events.

Riddle me not

Excerpts from: Riddles from the Exeter Book. An Anthology of Old English Poetry. Charles W. Kennedy, translator. New York: Oxford University Press, 1960.

I am valued by men, fetched from afar, Gleaned on the hill-slopes, gathered in groves,
 In dale and on down. All day through the air, Wings bore me aloft, and brought me with cunning Safe under roof. Men steeped me in vats. Now I have power to pummel and bind,
 To cast to the earth, old man and young. Soon he shall find who reaches to seize me,
 Pits force against force, that he's flat on the ground, Stripped of his strength if he cease not his folly,
 Loud in his speech, but of power despoiled To manage his mind, his hands or his feet.
 Now ask me my name, who can bind men on earth, And lay fools low in the light of day.

Time was when I was weapon and warrior; Now the young hero hoods me with gold, and twisted silver. At times men kiss me. At times I speak and summon to battle Loyal companions. At times a courser, Bears me o'er marchland. At times a ship
 Bears me o'er the billows, brightly adorned. At times a fair maiden fills me with breath;
 At times hard and headless I lie on the board, Bereft of beauty. At times I hang Winsome on wall, richly embellished, Where revelers drink. At times a warrior
 Bears me on a horse, a battle adornment, And I swallow, bright-shining, the breath from his bosom.
 At times with my strains I summon the heroes, Proudly to wine. At times I win back Spoil from the spoiler, with sounding voice, Put foemen to flight. Now ask what I'm called.

A lonely wanderer, wounded with iron, I am smitten with war-blades, sated with strife, Worn with the sword-edge; I have seen many battles, Much hazardous fighting, oft without hope
 Of comforts or help in the carnage of war Ere I perish and fall in the fighting of men.
 The leavings of hammers, the handiwork of smiths, Batter and bite me, hard-edged and sharp;
 The brunt of the battle I am doomed to endure. In all the folk-stead no leech could I find
 With wort or simple to heal my wounds; But day and night with the deadly blows
