If an Office is listed as vacant – it means the Barony is looking for someone to fill the office.

The Barony runs on volunteers and being an officer is a great way to learn things and help out. If you are not sure, there are people who will help figure things out and many offices can share the work load with deputies to help. New officers bring new ideas and this is one way the Barony grows and thrives.

on page 5, under NW #4 June 1975 listed Keeper of the Calendar - which should have read Gewellan the Bold, not Cewellan the Bold. (Editor's typing error – thank you to Master Nikolai for pointing it out)

 Archery Warpoint - Lions Gate
 Thrown Weapons Warpoint - Lions Gate
 Arts and Sciences Warpoint - Lions Gate
 Hobby Horse Equestrian - Seagirt

The war was well attended and enjoyed by all. Mundanes at the same campsite were fascinated by the combat and the activities on the ranges. Some were even asking how to get hold of us.

Shenanigans abounded as it does in the best wars.

However, one of the outstanding highlights of the day was at the Hobby Horse Equestrian where the Judges were dazzled by the two horned Unicorn and its rider who sparkled from head to toe. The obstacle course was run through with many interpretations of the best way to approach the obstacles. Finally, Seagirt's team dressage was quite wonderful to behold as they pranced through their paces.

A milestone is announced:

ON JUNE 8, AS 61, LIONS GATE WILL REACH THE 50th ANNIVERSARY OF BECOMING A BARONY!

The following pages will highlight the scroll that is the Charter of the Barony of Lions Gate, at the time of it's becoming a Barony, the northernmost Barony in the Kingdom of the West.

The scroll of the Baronial Charter was made by three of Lions Gate's scribes:

Styraeman for the lettering and the portraits on the side as well as King Paul at the top.

Rowenna de Roncesvalles de Navarre, who filled in the split letters.

Nikolai Andreiov did the section at the top, including Gerhard and Amanda as well as the illumination down the left side.

The scribes had instructions on how to create the Baronial charter. It included a number of directions such as:

Do not use a full sheet of parchment paper

Do not use split letters

Do not use portraits

Do not use metalics

They used all of the above. (Lions Gate folks from the beginning have had a touch of a rebellious streak when being told what to do...)

The scroll was completed in about a week, with the scribes finding time around their full time jobs. It was then packed and transported to Purgatorial for the signatures of the King and Queen and the royal seal. Gerhard and Amanda transported it without any idea of what they were carrying. They didn't find out until court when the signed and sealed scroll was presented back to them.

The top figures are Baroness Amanda Kendal, Baron Gerhard Kendal and King Paul of Bellatrix.

The portraits down the right side are the founding Baron-elect, officers of the Barony and representatives of the three main Households at that time. From top to bottom:

Michel Le Voyageur, founding Baron-elect

Seagdha of Green Mountain, Seneschal

Morgan of Aberystwyth, Sable Loat Pursuivant, House Llewellyn

Bjorn of Havok, Master of Stables, House HavOk

John of Candia, Exchequer

Gerek the Far-seeing, Master of Sciences

Tara nic an Fhleisdeir, Mistress of Arts

Akbar the Sot (Akbar Khayamm), Monboggian Horde

From the Editor: Many thanks to Master Nikolai for assistance with the history of the Baronial Charter.

Scrolls do not always age well (though SCA scribes have learned much about this over the years and things are improving in that area)

The Charter of the Barony does show it's 50 years. However, some sections are still worth a closer look.

The words of the Baronial Charter:

We, Paul and Carol, King and Queen of the West send to all Our subjects joyous greetings!

With the advice of Our Ministers, and the concurrence of the Board of Directors of The Society for Creative Anachronism We have determined to Charter the in the northern part of Our Kingdom. The said Barony to include the lands in and around the city of Vancouver, British Columbia.

And We do recognize ad Baron and Baroness of Lions Gate Gerhard Kendal of Westmoreland and Amanda Kendal of Westmoreland and as such they shall stand in Our stead in all matters ceremonial and carry out such other duties as We may from time to time charge them with.

And the governance of the Barony of Lions Gate We give into the hands of the Seneschal, Seaghdha of Green Mountain, and his successors, and he shall coordinate the activities of the several officers of the Barony and of the Cantons of the Barony and shall be responsible to Our Lord Seneschal for the continuance and coordination of activities in the Barony of Lions Gate, after the manner and laws of Our Kingdom.

Given by our Hand this 8th day of June in the year XI.

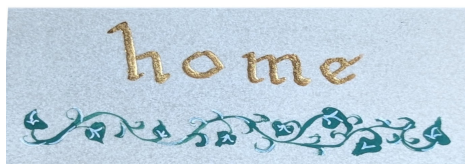

Paul, Rex Occidentalis

Carol, Regina

To the Barony of Lions Gate:

May the next 50 years be as full of skilled, caring and gracious folk to carry on the traditions, and help the Barony continue to grow in new ways, as the past 50 years have been.

After all, to many of us Lions Gate is

Elvina
